Train to Lead: The Youth Managers of Tomorrow

Lead organization:

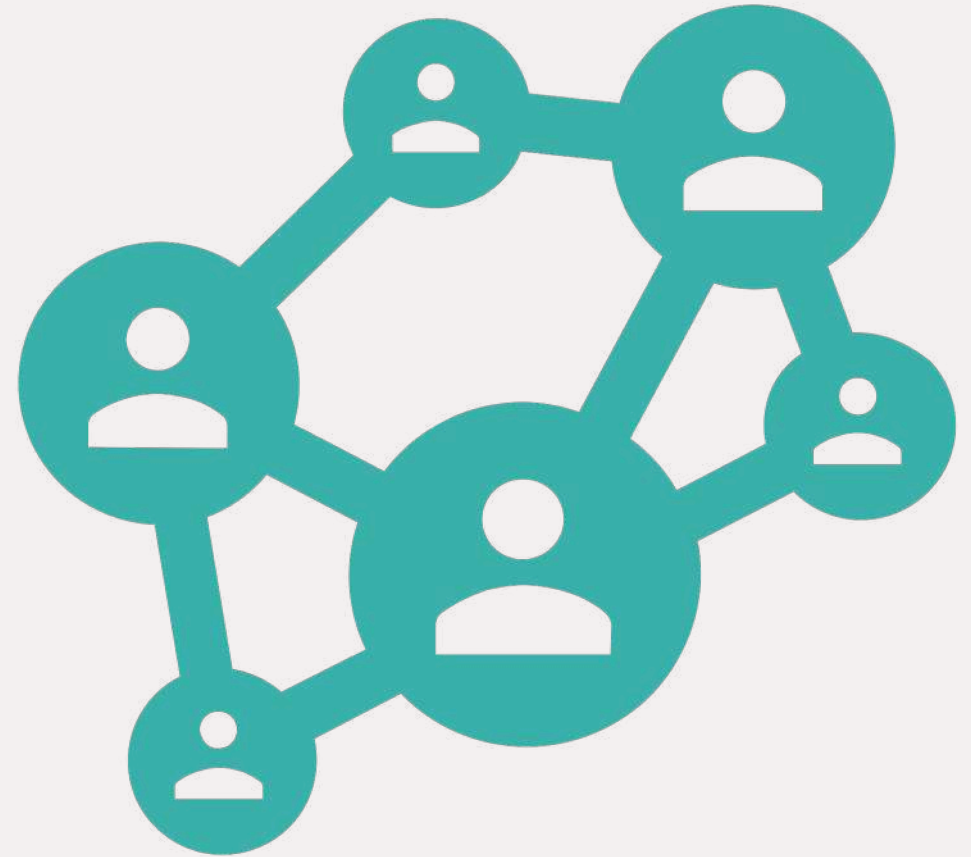

L'école des Valeurs (Luxembourg)

Partners:

- Centrines Europos tribuna (Lithuania)
- Fundacja 108 (Poland)
- Pangea Gençlik Derneği (Turkey)
- Școală de Valori (Romania)
- Stichting Jong Noord (The Netherlands)

Context of the project

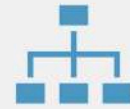

This project was created out of the need to develop effective management mechanisms within youth organizations. L'école des Valeurs and its partners identified a common need to enhance the leadership, organization, and communication skills of youth workers so they can better manage the groups they work with. The project aims to provide them with innovative methods and practical skills to improve their work.

Project objectives

To develop management skills by learning at least 3 key aspects (conflict resolution, group dynamics, assertive communication).

To improve at least 3 essential skills for a successful manager (leadership, teamwork, time management).

To introduce participants to at least 5 innovative non-formal education methods to optimize their way of working.

To increase participants' motivation and confidence to use their acquired management skills for the development of their organizations and communities.

Profile of the participants

01

30 youth workers from Romania, Luxembourg, Turkey, the Netherlands, Poland, and Lithuania (5 / country, at least 18 years old).

02
