ABOUT THE PROJECT:

TOGETHER FOR YOUTH – BUILDING INCLUSIVE AND DEMOCRATIC COMMUNITIES - is an international study visit bringing together 30 youth workers from 15 countries (2 per country), alongside 2 experienced facilitators, with the aim of exploring how inclusive and democratic communities for young people can be built and sustained.

Over the activity developed during 10 days in Râmnicu Sărat, Romania, participants will engage in a rich program of field visits, peer learning, and structured reflection, enlarging their perspectives in mapping and implementing activities aimed to increase the participation level of youth and local partnerships.

STUDY VISIT goals:

- EUyouth goals
- Participation in democratic life
- Inclusion and diversity

MAIN OBJECTIVES:

- A1. Discover effective youth spaces and activities that promote inclusion and wellbeing.
- A2. Explore models of youth participation in decision-making processes.
- A3. Document best practices and identify gaps related to the EU Youth Goals – with a focus on Goals 3 (Inclusive Societies), 5 (Mental Health & Wellbeing), and 9 (Space and Participation for All).

KEY METHODS:

- ✓ Field visits to youth centres, health hubs, and safe spaces
- ✓ Interviews with youth councils and support staff
- ✓ Mapping structural gaps and inclusive strategies through collaborative tools
- ✓ Conferences, seminars, workshop, world cafe, open space, debate, photovoice, others.

EXPECTED RESULTS:

A practical “Spaces for Us” case-booklet showcasing inclusive youth spaces and participatory structures from different countries

A joint Recommendations Document with insights on youth wellbeing and participation in public policy.
