Impactful Journeys Part 2

STUDY VISIT IN FLORENCE

2024-1-IT03-KA151-YOU-000225870-SM-PDA-P-4

Co-funded by
the European Union

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

This program is designed for youth workers aged 18–35 who:

- Are actively involved in youth organizations.
- Want to enhance their ability to support young people.
- Have a strong command of English.
- Are committed to participating fully in the program.
- Seek personal and professional growth to bring added value to their organization.

WHY JOIN?

As a youth worker, your influence is central to shaping the lives of young people. Investing in your self-development strengthens your capacity and enables you to lead by example and create a lasting impact on your organization.

Through this program, you will:

- Gain first-hand insights into local and international approaches to youth participation and civic engagement.
- Exchange experiences and ideas with peers working in youth work, non-formal education, and community development.
- Discover practical strategies to empower young people, foster inclusion, and promote active citizenship at the local level.
- Strengthen your professional network and develop new Erasmus+ partnerships for future youth-led initiatives.

METHODOLOGY

The study visit is based on non-formal learning methods, combining individual reflection, group activities, and practical exercises. The inclusive and experiential approach encourages self-awareness, collaboration, and critical thinking, equipping youth workers with tools to thrive in dynamic organizational environments.

THE EXPERIENCE

During the study visit, you will take part in a variety of activities across Florence and its surroundings. You will have the opportunity to meet and learn from a range of associations and grassroots initiatives that actively promote youth participation, civic engagement, and community involvement. Through field visits, workshops, and interactive sessions, you will gain a deeper understanding of how local youth organizations empower young people, promote active citizenship, and create spaces for dialogue, advocacy, and social change at the local level.

ACCOMMODATION

Participants will stay at a venue in shared 2–3 bedrooms, providing opportunities for networking and connection among peers. All meals are covered by the project. Travel reimbursement will be done according to Erasmus+ rules.

Location: Villa Morghen

Via Feliceto 8 50135 Settignano, FLORENCE

Co-funded by
the European Union

Participants duties

All participants will:

- Be ready to present their own organization and share their experience as youth workers.
- Select and present two best practices from their organization related to youth participation.
- Bring a laptop or tablet to work, in case you can not bring it please advise the coordinator.
- Participate in all the activities of the project.

Dissemination:

- To be eligible for reimbursement each participant will write a post or article about the project after the activity; Organize a dissemination event offline or
- online events within its organization or among other youth workers to share the results of the project.

Participants should provide photos, a description of the event and an attendance list as proof of dissemination.

Transport

All transportation within the city will be done using public transport.

How to reach the venue:

- If you arrive at the airports of Florence, Pisa, Bologna, first reach Florence Santa Maria Novella train station. From there, you can either take the tram or a bus, and then connect to bus number 10, getting off at the Settignano stop.
- If you arrive at Campo di Marte train station, you can directly take the bus number 10 to reach the venue area.

We recommend checking your route in advance with Google Maps to find the most convenient and up-to-date directions.

Weather

In early December, Florence experiences cold winter weather, with average daytime highs around 12°C (53°F) and overnight lows of 3°C (37°F). You should expect fewer sunny days, potentially around five hours of daylight, and be prepared for at least 13 days with rain and moderate humidity. You should pack a warm coat, warm clothes, sweaters, a hat, gloves, comfortable and waterproof shoes, and an umbrella to be prepared for frequent showers. We always suggest layered outfits!

TRAVEL REIMBURSEMENTS

Travel expenses (travel from your departure city to the project venue) will be reimbursed by bank transfer to the participant's organization, which will be in charge of making the final transfer to the participants.

The project is organised with a 2024 funding scheme, and travel support will be paid according to the Erasmus+ distance band. To calculate the distance, please use this link Distance Calculator by entering the location of your organization and the project location.

TRAVEL DAYS

Number of Travel Days

- For non-green (normal) travel, the maximum number of travel days is 2, except in special distance cases. The 8th of December is already counted as a travel day. If you use green / sustainable means of transport, you may be eligible for up to 6 travel days (e.g. three for going, three for coming back), depending on distance and institutional rules.

What Counts as Green Travel

- Green travel (also called sustainable or low-emission travel) means using transport methods with lower environmental impact. Typical examples: train, bus, car-pooling, bicycle etc.
- Non-green means include individual car travel (unless car-pooling), flights, ferries/ships etc.
- To qualify for green travel benefits, over 50% of the total journey distance (going and coming back) must be done via green means.
