

Volunteer in Denmark at the Medieval Center

Are you between 18 and 30 years old and would you like to go back in time in a Medieval Center in Denmark? If you are a curious, outdoorsy and open-minded person, ready to learn about nature and history and not afraid to get into character in a truly unique setting, then we have the opportunity for you!

ESC VOLUNTEER

- When: May - October 2026
- Finances: accommodation and food covered, you will receive 380€/month as pocket money
- Your travel is covered up to a certain limit
- Health insurance is covered

MIDDELALDERCENTRET

It is a living history museum on the island of Falster where the educational work takes place as re-enactment by staff and volunteers dressed in reconstructed clothing, acting as medieval people. Events at the center include knight tournaments, trebuchets, canon and bombards markets - you'll have the possibility of developing various practical skills!

Read more on our website
and apply by 10th November 2025