Through the Lens

- The Art of film making

Through a series of workshops, this project aims to explore various filmmaking aspects and techniques while integrating elements of theater to enhance storytelling and performance. By focusing on collaboration and interaction, this project seeks to build a creative community through shared experiences in filmmaking and theatrical expression.

The workshops will be supported by non-formal methods. As the youth exchange is a concept where each participant is encouraged to give their input, we take the approach of assigning a minimum of one workshop per country team. In this way, each team will have the chance to get actively involved into the program of activities.

The project will feature a screening of participant-produced videos that explore themes related to the UN Sustainable Development Goals.

There is no physical APV foreseen for this project. All preparation will take place online. The team leader of each country team will be responsible to prepare workshops and to go through the logistics altogether.

The project is co-funded by the Erasmus+ program of the European Union.

Participants profile

This youth exchange is open to young people aged 17-26 who have experience in filmmaking and would feel comfortable being recorded and doing theater. A portion of enthusiasts will also be accepted, but we strive not to have more than 20% of participants per team falling in this category. An exception to the age range is possible. If this is the case, please consult us beforehand.

English will be the working language of this project, which is why we find it important that each participant has at least basic knowledge of the language.

Good mood, happy faces and positive energy are more than welcomed.

Erasmus+ is a program that supports young people with disadvantages which is the reason why we strongly encourage their inclusion.

Accommodation

Chalet Géisserei is a scouts center located in the vicinity of Luxembourg city.

The scouts center is maintained by volunteers- members of the scouts federation who do everything in their power to make the accommodation venue flourish. The venue is equipped with advanced garbage selection and we would kindly ask you to stick to it.

The inhabitants in the vicinity value their calm lifestyle, meaning that a quiet and calm ambience in the period 10p.m. - 8a.m. would be expected.

Please note that the accommodation venue is not in Luxembourg city, meaning that if the project topic and the youth exchange itself is not your main motivation to visit, you might want to reconsider your participation in this project.

Facilities

Activity/dining room; Professional kitchen;
Bathrooms/ showers (separated by gender);
Shared rooms (separated by gender).

How to get to the accommodation venue?

Travel and reimbursement

The travel costs will be reimbursed up to the limit of 309€ per participant. All plane tickets must be bought directly via the airline company. The use of any providers must be approved by REACT in advance!

They will be used to fill in the travel cost reimbursement form on project. Travel costs will be reimbursed only if you take part in ALL the activities foreseen for the project.

Please note that we strongly encourage the idea of green travel. If you would like to organize your trip in this way, please share this info with your sending organization. Please note that in this case, extra travel days and a reimbursement ceiling of 417€ is eligible.
