ABOUT THE PROGRAM

Beyond Sustainability is a training course for youth workers and all professionals working with young people. The program aims to enhance understanding of sustainability, enabling participants to discuss and take action on related issues, and fostering a world where resources are used and shared justly. The program will take place in Hollókő, Hungary between 25 February- 05 March 2026.

The training program was designed to support youth workers develop a fresh environmental perspective and explore new methods and tools for initiating a more sustainable lifestyle both personally and professionally. They will also practice how to promote the idea of sustainability and use different tools in their work with youngsters.

METHODOLOGY

The main method used is creative recycling, which is based on creativity, cooperation and crafting. We employ creativity and upcycling as effective tools for cultivating a variety of skills, supported by additional non-formal learning methods.

MAIN PROGRAM ELEMENTS

Fostering critical dialogue on sustainability

Establishing a shared framework and vocabulary to facilitate effective communication on the topic

Sharing tools among each other in order to tackle the climate/justice related issues

Building collaborative networks for future actions

Working individually and in small, large and mixed groups

Team building activities

Self-assessment

Sharing of best practices

Outdoor activities

THE TEAM

The program is organized by ReCreativity, a Budapest-based social enterprise. We offer non-formal education programs that utilize creative recycling methods to help individuals develop innovative solutions in their everyday lives while also promoting environmental awareness. The program of this mobility is designed and conducted by a multicultural team of experienced trainers and assistants. The team includes experts on photography and graphic design, as well.

MEET THE TRAINERS

Barbara Földi

I am Barbara Földi, one of the co-founders of ReCreativity Social Enterprise. I am an adult educator and youth worker and I am so lucky to do what I truly love! As a trainer and coach, I support people to create a lifestyle where they can focus on self-development, self-motivation and learning how to organize their life in a sustainable way. To live a sustainable life, you do not only have to think about the environmental aspect but also have to learn how to sustain our motivation, curiosity and creativity so that we can live a life where we support ourselves, others and the planet as well. Our skills can be developed and we are sharing our routines and attitudes. I support people with coaching sessions, training and workshops where they can practice all these. What will be your first step towards a more sustainable life?

Boróka Bálint

As a trainer and community organizer collaborating with European NGOs, I am dedicated to refining the content, focus, and methodologies of civil society training programs, placing a strong emphasis on justice. My dedication to transformative change, rooted in the principles of community autonomy and liberation, fuels my vision of nurturing a caring, regenerative, and equitable society able to flourish within the constraints of planetary boundaries.

PARTICIPANTS

Participation is open to people who are over 18 years old, coming from Hungary, Slovakia, Serbia, Bulgaria, North Macedonia, Lithuania, Sweden, Italy.

We are looking for individuals open to explore innovative creative recycling and non-formal education methods, fostering personal growth, community engagement and contributing to sustainable practices.

Designed for youth workers, trainers, and NGO members active in the field of non-formal education, this Training Course offers customized tools to enhance their work and its impact.

CONTRIBUTION OF THE PARTICIPANT

You are not just a participant— you are also a co-creator of this training course. We warmly invite you to enrich the program by bringing your favourite icebreaker, team-building activity, tool, or anything else you're passionate about. Your unique contribution can make a real difference!

Your involvement doesn't stop there — your actions have an impact! That's why we would love you to take part in spreading the word about this training. You have been given this opportunity because you are a change-maker in your community. With that comes a shared responsibility: to give back, to inspire, and to share your experience within your network. Our collective goal is to ensure that at least one newcomer discovers the incredible opportunities Erasmus+ can offer.

Your contribution as a co-creator:

- Sharing one social media post during or after the training course at your personal social media or at your NGO's social media
- Organizing one local activity — individually or with your national team
- Filling out the EU survey
