

CTRL+ALT+YOUTH

International seminar that brings together youth workers from across Europe to rethink, reboot and redesign youth work for the challenges of today and tomorrow.

Youth workers need new tools, competences, and European cooperation to keep up

CTRL+ALT+YOUTH: Rebooting Youth Work

Over seven immersive days in Krzyżowa, we will:

- explore how AI influences youth work and youth education,
- strengthen critical thinking and media literacy,
- understand the impact of war, crisis and propaganda on young people,
- translate European values into concrete youth work practices,
- share expertise through peer-led sessions,
- dive deep into challenges and solutions during two days of Open Space Technology,
- and co-create a long-term cooperation plan for 2026–2027.
- This seminar is not the end – it is the beginning of a year-long partnership with follow-up trainings, local actions, and joint initiatives.

Young people are growing up in a world shaped by:

- AI-generated content and algorithm-driven decisions
- propaganda, polarization, and information overload
 - war narratives and societal uncertainty
- digital opportunities that evolve faster than youth work can follow

The project will be held in beautiful Krzyżowa, with rich history and stunning nature. You can learn more about the place here:
