About the project

Let's explore gender equality and the stereotypes we still face in everyday life. Together, we'll look at how gender norms shape our experiences, relationships and choices - both offline and online.

Through discussions, creative activities, role plays and real-life scenarios, you'll learn how to recognise inequality, communicate with respect and challenge stereotypes constructively.

Join us, break the norms and help build a more equal and inclusive future!

Participants

• Lithuania • Bulgaria

Aged 15-20

We're looking for young people who are curious, open-minded and ready to take an active part in the whole exchange.

You don't need to be an expert on gender equality – just come ready to learn, share your ideas and explore different perspectives together!

Once selected

- Check the conditions for travelling to Lithuania and returning to your country.
- Stay in touch with your national coordinator and the coordinating organisation in Lithuania - Laura Vanagaitė (laura@tavo-europa.eu).
- Purchase and keep all travel tickets ONLY after consultation and approval from the coordinating organisation - CET Lithuania.
- Communicate with your national team and prepare for the intercultural evenings and other activities.

During the exchange

- Actively participate in all workshops, sessions and planned activities.
- Be open, respectful and ready to share your ideas and experiences.

After the exchange

- Take part in the dissemination of the project results through social media posts, videos, campaigns or other activities.
- Send all required travel documents to CET Lithuania for reimbursement.

How to reach the venue

Once you arrive in Vilnius, make your way to Vilnius Train Station.

From there, take a train to Trakai. You might arrive to the train station - great, you are already there! If you arrive to the bus station - it is right next to the train station - just cross the street!

Get off at TRAKAI station (the final stop) – make sure not to get off at Senieji Trakai!

Check the train schedule here.

If there are no suitable trains, check the buses – the bus station is just around the corner from the train station. Find the bus schedule here.

Once you arrive in Trakai, we can pick you up and take you to the venue.

- All costs related to the youth exchange, including food, accommodation, and other practicalities, are fully covered. However, CET is not responsible for any fees you may need to pay to your sending organization.
- Travel costs will be reimbursed up to a specified limit. Any expenses exceeding this limit will need to be covered by participants themselves. Each participant is responsible for purchasing their own tickets, with support from their sending organization and after obtaining approval from the coordinating organization. To qualify for reimbursement, participants must provide all necessary travel documentation, including original tickets, invoices and proof of payment (e.g., bank payment receipts). Before purchasing tickets, you must submit potential routes and costs for our approval. Reimbursement is contingent upon completing local follow-up activities, as well as filling out all required forms.
- Tickets must be purchased by October 10th, 2026.
- If you wish to arrive earlier or leave later and still receive a travel refund, you may arrive up to two days before or leave up to two days after the official youth activity dates. Please note that you will be responsible for your own expenses during these extra days.
- Please be aware that lost or missing tickets will not be reimbursed. Additionally, travel agency fees are not eligible for reimbursement; therefore, please book your tickets directly.
- Travel for this project must be by land only, such as by bus, train or car. All relevant tickets and travel documents must be kept and submitted for reimbursement.

Lithuania

Lithuania, nestled in the Baltic region of Europe, boasts a rich history and vibrant culture. Vilnius, the capital, stands as a testament to the country's resilience, with its UNESCO-recognized medieval center.

Since gaining independence in 1990, Lithuania has embraced its European identity, joining both the EU and NATO. Lithuanian, one of the world's oldest languages, is the official language. The country's love for basketball is palpable, and its national team has earned global acclaim. With diverse landscapes, from lush forests to a scenic Baltic coastline, Lithuania is not just a geographical gem but a cultural and historical treasure.
