Training course

Facilitate Visually

Pinos Genil (Granada, Spain)

10 - 17 November 2026

Objectives

- To increase participants' knowledge of graphic facilitation and the use of visual methods in education
- To develop practical skills in using visuals to present ideas and information in a clear and engaging way
 - To build participants' confidence in using graphic facilitation and graphic recording in their educational activities
- To promote international cooperation and networking among representatives of youth organisations.

The facilitators

Helena Podleśákova Leszczyńska. Helena is a trainer, graphic facilitator, graphic recorder, and co-founder of the NGO YoWo Poland. Since 2019, she has been working as a full-time trainer and educational project coordinator within the Erasmus+ Programme at YoWo Poland and CEFIG International (Czechia). She has extensive experience in both designing and implementing international mobility projects.

Urszula Leszczyńska. Ula is a trainer, education specialist, graphic facilitator and project manager with extensive experience in the NGO sector. She has led Erasmus+ projects and supported nonprofits across Europe. Ula is passionate about empowering others through non-formal education, mentorship, and strategic support, driving innovation and growth in the nonprofit sector. Together with Helena, she has co-founded a Polish NGO, YoWo Poland.

About the venue

We will be in "Hotel La Duquesa", located in Pinos Genil, Granada. It's a hotel with double and triple rooms that you'll share with people from other countries but same gender. Rooms are equipped with everything you could need, including towels. Working and dining rooms are in the same venue.

Arrivals

THE BEST 2 OPTIONS

From MÁLAGA airport. There are frequent bus connections to Granada, with a travel time of around 2 hours. Some buses depart directly from the airport. You can check schedules and book tickets on the bus company's website: www.alsa.es

From GRANADA airport. It is a small airport with limited connections, but it is well linked to the city centre. There is a regular bus service connecting the airport with the city centre.

Arrivals

OTHER POSSIBILITIES

From MADRID airport. We do not particularly recommend this option, as it involves a long bus journey, but it is still possible. From Madrid Airport, you should take a cercanías train to Méndez Álvaro bus station. From there, you can take a bus to Granada (around 5 hours) via www.alsa.es. Alternatively, you can take a train, which is faster but usually more expensive (www.renfe.com).

Other suggestions will need to be discussed with Somos La Otra.

Granada – Pinos

Once in Granada, you need to take a bus to Pinos Genil. We recommend taking bus number 390 at 18:30, so you have enough time to check in, take a shower and relax before dinner.

On the departure day, check-out is after breakfast. You can find the bus stops and timetables here. The most convenient stop for the hotel is Ctra. de Pinos Genil.

Participants are allowed to arrive up to 2 days before or stay up to 2 days after the activity, but any additional costs must be covered by themselves.

Travel costs

Travel distance	Budget (EUR)
10 – 99 km	28
100 – 499 km	211
500 – 1999 km	309
2000 – 2999 km	395
3000 – 3999 km	580
4000 – 7999 km	1188

Please keep all original tickets and receipts for reimbursement. We can only reimburse travel costs if original receipts and boarding passes are provided.

Your travel plan must be approved by the Somos La Otra team before purchasing any tickets.

Please also remember to use the Erasmus distance band calculator or check the maximum budget available for your travel.
