UNLOCKING LEARNING

NEUROEDUCATION IN YOUTH WORK

9-17 December

 Markutiškės, Lithuania

Co-funded by the European Union

Unlocking Learning: neuroeducation in youth work is a training course that will teach youth workers how to help young people learn easier, be more impacted of what they learn and actually put that information into practise in this digital age, by using neuroeducation, non-formal techniques.

Our project aims to develop youth workers' competencies in neuroeducation, empowering them to create more engaging, structured, and impactful activities tailored to the diverse learning styles and needs of the groups of young people they work with.

HOW TO REACH THE VENUE

Once you arrive in Vilnius, make your way to Vilnius Train Station. From there, take a train to Trakai. You might arrive to the train station. If you arrive to the bus station – it is right next to the train station – just cross the street!

Get off at TRAKAI station (the final stop)
– make sure not to get off at Senieji Trakai!

Check the train schedule here.

If there are no suitable trains, check the buses – the bus station is just around the corner from the train station. Find the bus schedule here.

Once you arrive in Trakai, we can pick you up and take you to the venue.

REIMBURSEMENT

- All costs related to the Training Course, including food, accommodation, and other practicalities, are fully covered. However, Tavo Europa is not responsible for any fees you may need to pay to your sending organization.
- Travel costs will be reimbursed up to a specified limit. Any expenses exceeding this limit will need to be covered by participants themselves. Each participant is responsible for purchasing their own tickets, with support from their sending organization and after obtaining approval from the coordinating organization. To qualify for reimbursement, participants must provide all necessary travel documentation, including original tickets, invoices and proof of payment (e.g., bank payment receipts). Before purchasing tickets, you must submit potential routes and costs for our approval. Reimbursement is contingent upon completing local follow-up activities, as well as filling out all required forms.
- Tickets must be purchased by November 23rd, 2026.
- If you wish to arrive earlier or leave later and still receive a travel refund, you may arrive up to two days before or leave up to two days after the official youth exchange dates. Please note that you will be responsible for your own expenses during these extra days.
- Please be aware that lost or missing tickets will not be reimbursed. Additionally, travel agency fees are not eligible for reimbursement; therefore, please book your tickets directly.

ABOUT LITHUANIA

Lithuania, nestled in the Baltic region of Europe, boasts a rich history and vibrant culture. Vilnius, the capital, stands as a testament to the country's resilience, with its UNESCO recognized medieval center. Since gaining independence in 1990, Lithuania has embraced its European identity, joining both the EU and NATO.

Lithuanian, one of the world's oldest languages, is the official language. The country's love for basketball is palpable, and its national team has earned global acclaim.

With diverse landscapes, from lush forests to a scenic Baltic coastline, Lithuania is not just a geographical gem but a cultural and historical treasure.
