Training Course

Action for Inclusion

Applying Inclusive Tools in Youth Work

Pinos Genil (Granada, Spain)

19 - 26 November 2026

Co-funded by the European Union

Objectives

1. To raise awareness among participants about the fundamental importance of diversity and inclusion, addressing mental health, combating discrimination and understanding systemic barriers in youth work.

2. To equip participants with practical methodologies and tools to design and implement inclusive strategies, focusing on creating safe spaces and managing sensitive topics within their organizations and communities.

3. To build participants' confidence and competences in identifying and addressing discrimination, mental health challenges and other obstacles to inclusion in their local youth work practices.

The facilitators

Santiago Gallego:

He is a former European volunteer within the Youth in Action Program, 2008 in Germany. He has experience as project coordinator both at local and international level and is a trainer in ESC / EVS cycle, also in Erasmus+ projects.

Víctor Paterna:

He is a psychologist and sexologist specialized in working with highly vulnerable groups. He has experience attending people in emergency situations while ensuring their emotional well-being.

About the venue

We will be in "Hotel La Duquesa", located in Pinos Genil, Granada. The hotel features comfortable double rooms equipped with everything you may need, including towels. Rooms will be shared with participants from other countries but of the same gender. Additionally, the working and dining rooms are in the same venue.

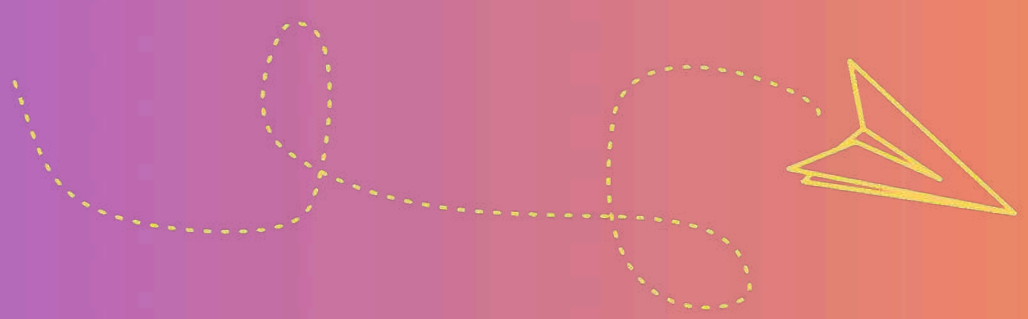

Arrivals

THE BEST TWO OPTIONS:

From MÁLAGA airport. There are frequent bus connections to Granada, with a travel time of around 2 hours. Some buses depart directly from the airport. You can check schedules and book tickets on the bus company's website: www.alsa.es

From GRANADA airport. It is a small airport with limited connections, but it is well linked to the city centre. There is a regular bus service connecting the airport with the city centre.

Arrivals II

OTHER POSSIBILITIES:

From MADRID airport. We do not particularly recommend this option, as it involves a long bus journey, but it is still possible. From Madrid Airport, you should take a cercanías train to Méndez Álvaro bus station. From there, you can take a bus to Granada (around 5 hours) via www.alsa.es. Alternatively, you can take a train, which is faster but usually more expensive (www.renfe.com).

Other suggestions will need to be discussed with Las Niñas del Tul team.

Granada - Pinos

Once in Granada, you need to take a bus to Pinos Genil. We recommend taking bus number 390 at 18:30, so you have enough time to check in, take a shower and relax before dinner.

On the departure day, check-out is after breakfast. You can find the bus stops and timetables here. The most convenient stop for the hotel is Ctra. de Pinos Genil.

Participants are allowed to arrive up to 2 days before or stay up to 2 days after the activity, but any additional costs must be covered by themselves.
